

Year 10 COMMUNITY SERVICES (ECS)

SUBJECT DESCRIPTION	The Community Services subject gives students experiences in a range of the community services topics including human development, early childhood, teenage issues, caring for others. In our community the community services industry is growing rapidly with employment opportunities on the increase. Students can continue Community Services in year 11 &amp; 12 to attain Early Childhood qualifications and Community services certificate. Year 11: Early Childhood Study Area Specification  Year12: CHC10102 Certificate I in Work Preparation (Community Services)
PREREQUISITES  Level of junior achievement required to successfully complete the subject	There are no prerequisites for Community Services.
EXPECTED OUTCOMES  Aims of the subject	The aim of this year 10 subject is to give an introduction to aspects of Community Services subject and industry. Students will participate in the “Baby Think It Over” Program. With the general nature of the course, students would gain skills and information that would make them better community citizens and family members. A subject for everyone.
COURSE OUTLINE/UNITS	Term 1- Human Development  Types of development, examples and activities. Term 2- Introduction to Early Childhood  Conception, Birth and Parenting Term 3- Teens issues  Decision making, Peer pressure Term 4- Caring for Others.  Understanding disabilities, aged care and the disadvantaged.
ASSESSMENT/ WORKLOAD  Expected work and study requirements	Each term students will have one piece of assessment, which may include written tests, assignments or practical activities.
BENEFITS OF STUDYING THIS SUBJECT  Career prospects / relevance to the future	This subject is relevant to students who desire a career in childcare, social work, disability services, aged care or any occupation involved in relating to people. Students find that they gain a range of skills that are useful in their present relationships and their future family relationships.
CONTACT PERSON	Mrs Janet Sullivan (Head of Department)